Richard Michael "Dick" Dull
Director of Athletics

Dick Dull is beginning his fifth year as chief administrator of an extremely successful Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. In his four years as the Director of Athletics the department has not only been successful in intercollegiate competition but has been financially stable.

During the 1984-85 season the Maryland football team won its second consecutive ACC Championship and captured the Sun Bowl title in its third consecutive Bowl trip. The basketball team, defending ACC Champions, made the NCAA Championship field for the third consecutive year and reached the final 16 before losing to eventual champion Villanova. The Women's basketball team has also been to the NCAA Championships in three of the last four years and the Women's lacrosse team gained the NCAA title game for the second consecutive year.

While looking ahead to continued success on the field with a national championship contender in football, Dull has resisted attempts by several major universities to lure him from College Park. At 40 he is recognized as one of the top administrators in intercollegiate athletics.

Dull assumed the duties of Director of Athletics on August 1, 1981. He was appointed by the Board of Regents on June 19, 1981.

He spent his first Christmas as Director of Athletics searching the nation for a Head Football Coach. His second Christmas on the job was spent in Hawaii as Bobby Ross took the Terps to the initial Aloha Bowl for a Christmas Day game against Washington. He was able to relax while celebrating the third as he had just returned with Ross and the football team from the Florida Citrus Bowl, and spent his fourth Christmas as the Athletic Director celebrating a Sun Bowl victory.

He has the responsibility for a self supporting department of the University with a six million dollar budget. In addition to supporting 22 varsity teams the department is responsible for the operation and maintenance of an 18 hole golf course and driving range. Other facilities the department is responsible for include Cole Field House, Byrd Stadium, Shipley Field, two football practice fields and an artificial turf all-purpose practice field. In addition there are facilities for Intercollegiate Soccer and Lacrosse, Women's Field Hockey and Lacrosse and Tennis courts for men and women. The department has over 90 employees.

Despite rising prices, especially in the areas of equipment, medical care, insurance, travel and scholarships and competition for the entertainment dollar, he has maintained financial solvency.

He was well qualified for the position taking over a department that he had worked his way through, beginning as a student athlete in 1964.

Since joining the Maryland Athletic Department, Dull's duties have encompassed everything from coaching on the field to scheduling, supervision and administration of all non-revenue sports, serving as liaison with the Office of Financial Aid, supervision and administration of the Business Office of Intercollegiate Athletics and he reorganized the former Department of Women's Intercollegiate Athletics into the Office of Non-Revenue Sports.

Since taking over as Athletic Director he has reorganized the promotions department and initiated new Athletic Department publications designed to whet the appetite of sports fans and athletes interested in Maryland athletics.

He initially came to Maryland as a student-athlete from Biglerville High in Pennsylvania. He received his Bachelor of Arts as a Political Science major in 1967 and then moved on to the Maryland School of Law.

He received his Doctor of Laws in 1971 and the experience gained as an Attorney at Law for four years contributed to his success and perseverance throughout the past four years.

As an undergraduate he was a champion javelin thrower for the Maryland Track and Field team. His best competitive throw was 251 feet.

He was Pennsylvania High School Champion in 1961, the Pennsylvania Jaycee State Champion in 1963 and the PIAA State runner-up in 1963. In 1965 he was the National Junior AAU Champion.

Among his many titles won while at Maryland are ACC Champion, Penn Relay Champion, and ACC-SEC Champion. He also placed eighth in the National AAU Championships and the NCAA Championships.

As a javelin coach he produced two ACC Champions and an All-American, while also handling the academic affairs and administration of the Track team.

His Bar memberships include the Court of Appeals of Maryland and the Federal Court for District of Maryland.

He served from June 1971 to June 1973 as Attorney at Law, Legal Aid Bureau in Baltimore, Maryland and from June 1973 to January 1975 as Attorney at Law with the University of Southern California, National Senior Citizens Law Center. While with USC he served for a period as the Acting Director of the Washington office.

His hobbies include photography, fishing and motor sports. He was born on July 1, 1945.

Robert J. "Bobby" Ross
Head Football Coach
University of Maryland

In three years at Maryland Bobby Ross has won 25 of 36 games, led the Terrapins to three consecutive Bowl games and won consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference Championships.

He has won 15 of 16 ACC games and opens the 1985 season with the third longest winning streak in the nation in Division IA.

In his first year at Maryland, Ross was accorded ACC and District III "Coach of the Year" honors and was named National "Coach of the Year" by the Washington Touchdown Club.

Ross accepted the head coaching duties at Maryland on January 14, 1982 and less than a year later was celebrating his forty sixth birthday in Hawaii with the football team as the Terps visited the initial Aloha Bowl. With his birthday coming on December 23 he had visited his second bowl with the Terps before celebrating his second birthday at Maryland, this time with a trip to the Florida Citrus Bowl. He received his third birthday present a day early as the Terps won the 1984 Sun Bowl game 28-27 over Tennessee on December 22.

When Director of Athletics Dick Dull selected Ross from a long list of candidates that included many prominent names in collegiate and professional football, even he could not envision the immediate impact Ross would have on the program.

The Kansas City Assistant Coach made the move from the NFL, back into collegiate football, an immediate success as he assembled one of the finest coaching staffs in the collegiate ranks. He selected a staff that is not only qualified in the field of football but are excellent teachers as well. Eight of the nine assistant coaches have advanced degrees.

His first recruiting class, although limited in numbers, produced quality football players despite the late arrival of the head coach. That class included Rick Badanjek, 34 touchdowns and 214 points, All-ACC Defensive Safety Al Covington and All-ACC Defensive Guard Bruce Mesner.

His imaginative and exciting offense captivated football fans and players alike. This has resulted in not only increased exposure in the media but has greatly aided recruiting efforts. He has created a renewed enthusiasm for collegiate football in the Washington-Baltimore area as the Terps broke every Maryland attendance record in 1983.

The largest crowd to ever see a Maryland football team play was at Penn State last fall, 85,486 and the second largest in the same stadium in 1982 with 84,597 on hand. The fourth largest was at Clemson in 1983 with 80,615. He also drew the largest crowd for a Maryland home game with 60,575 in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium to see the win over Clemson 41-23 in 1984.

Ross came to Maryland well prepared for the head coaching duties having attended and coached at a military school, having served under some of the finest head coaches in the collegiate ranks and having served four years in the National Football League. His five years at The Citadel as the head coach aided him immensely in putting together his outstanding staff.

He has worked with every phase of the game and with universities on every level. He graduated from Virginia Military and served as an assistant coach at the University of Maryland, Virginia Military, William & Mary, Rice and with Kansas City in the NFL.

His duties have included working with the defensive secondary, offensive backfield, linebackers and specialty teams. He served as the director of recruiting at several schools and as a defensive coordinator.

Ross immediately established a rapport with the members of the football team at Maryland, establishing himself as a disciplinarian but one who treats every player as an individual. He impressed upon them the importance of their classroom work and captivated them with his football philosophy. He has demonstrated his ability to communicate with and motivate young men both on and off the field.

This was especially evident in his first and third year with the Terps. His first game in Byrd Stadium followed a pair of tough road losses to Penn State and West Virginia but the Terps went on to an 8-3 record and a trip to the initial Aloha Bowl. In 1984 the Terps entered the season with a young team and again were 0-2 with several injured players on the sidelines. The youngsters responded by winning nine of the next ten games, losing only a 25-24 decision to Penn State, and won the Sun Bowl Championship.

Ross credits his college coach John McKenna with being the major influence on his coaching career but says he learned a little from each coach he worked with. The major thing he picked up in the NFL was an appreciation for the passing game and specialty teams. He does not hesitate to put the football in the air and expresses a desire for basically a 50 50 ratio between the run and pass. After the 0-2 start last fall the team achieved that mark in the next ten games. Over the ten games (won 9 lost 1) the Terps passed for 2,390 yards and rushed for 2,390 yards. In the two losses they rushed for 147 and passed for 413 yards.

Ross earned a reputation at The Citadel as a man of detail and organization and was always accessible. He has impressed everyone in those areas since arriving in College Park. He has been accessible to the media, alumni and fans alike. He has covered the state from border to border as well as the neighboring states on speaking engagements and has participated in numerous clinics. It was the media who voted him ACC coaching honors in 1982 and the coaches who voted him All-District honors. He has participated in the ABC NCAA football tour meeting the writers in Kings Island, Ohio and the NCAA Football Seminar in Kansas City attended by many of the nation's top writers.

He has made an impression on the high school coaching ranks also as over 1,100 coaches have attended the clinics held in the spring. He was instrumental in having the Maryland Public Secondary Schools Championship games played in Byrd Stadium the past three years.

Ross had impressed Director of Athletics Dick Dull with his outlook on Intercollegiate Athletics, his organizational ability, his views on recruiting, classroom work and all phases of his coaching ability. He has since convinced everyone associated with collegiate football that he is not only a winner but a credit to intercollegiate sports.

As the head coach, his 1974 Citadel team led the Southern Conference in total defense and his 1975 team ranked fifth in the nation in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 8.8 points a game. He coached The Citadel's all-time passer, all time ground gainer and all-time placekicker. He also coached the school's first Associated Press All-American. His Citadel teams led the Southern Conference in home attendance in his last three years there and in 1975 and '76 broke the all-time attendance records for the school.

Since arriving at Maryland his Terrapins have led the ACC in scoring and rushing defense (1982), total offense, passing offense and scoring offense in 1984 and won the league championship in 1983 and '84. He has coached the Terrapins all-time passer in Boomer Esiason, all-time placekicker in Jess Atkinson and the top touchdown producer in Rick Badanjek, along with the all-time pass receiver in Greg Hill. Badanjek returns for 1985 with 34 touchdowns and 214 points scored.

His first Maryland team, 32.1 points a game, was the highest scoring team in the ACC since 1972 and only two league scoring champions ever scored more in the 32 years of the ACC. His third team averaged 32.0 points a game. In three years the Terps have averaged 30.2 points for 33 regular season games.

The 1982 team ranked third in the nation in rushing defense (87.2 yards a game) and eighth in the nation in scoring (32.1) while the 1984 team ranked sixth in total offense (446.4) eighth in scoring (32.0) and fifteenth in passing (236.5).

The Terps averaged 39,325 per game in Byrd Stadium in his first year, an increase of 8,225 per game over 1981 and 46,403 average in his second year. In two years attendance increased by 15,303 a game. The 46,403 average in Byrd and the 48,388 for 12 games were both Maryland records.

Ross was quite familiar with the Maryland football program as he is a native of nearby Richmond, Virginia, attended college in Lexington, Virginia, coached in Lexington and Williamsburg, Virginia as well as Richmond and Colonial Heights, Virginia on the high school level. He also served the 1972 season on Jerry Claiborne's staff at Maryland. He left Claiborne's staff to assume the head coaching duties at The Citadel in 1973 where he remained five years before moving on to the NFL.

Ross served a tour of duty in the U.S. Army as a First Lieutenant following graduation from Virginia Military. He married the former Alice Bucker of Richmond and they have five children. Chris, a graduate of the Air Force Academy, is with the Air Force in California. Mary Catherine is a student at Maryland and Teresa is a student at Loyola College in Baltimore where she plays on the women's basketball team. Kevin attends the Naval Academy in Annapolis and is a runner on the Navy track team. Robbie is the youngest.

MEDICAL STAFF

Dr. Stanford A. Lavine (Maryland '50)
Team Physician

As the Terrapin football team opens the 1985 season, it will mark the "Silver Anniversary" for the Maryland alumnus as the University's team physician and Orthopedic Surgeon. The former Terp quarterback was selected as team physician in 1960. In all these 24 years he has medically supervised athletes in all of the University's sports programs, which now numbers 22.

He is with the football team at all games, home and away, and attends all the home basketball games and many away games. His office is on call at all times when the trainers call for him to see an athlete. In all these years, Dr. Lavine has missed only 5 Maryland football games.

He is considered one of the nation's top Orthopedic Surgeons and is most prominent in the field of "Sports Medicine." He has an annual clinic which attracts the top Orthopedic Surgeons and athletic team doctors in the country. His reputation has brought him numerous professional athletes of all sports, men and women, for surgery and treatment.

Dr. Lavine has been the team physician for the Washington Redskins since 1975. He also was the team physician for the Washington Bullets, 1973-79. Thus, his trophy mantle glitters with 5 Maryland ACC Championship rings, 2 Redskin Super Bowl rings, and one NBA Championship ring while with the Bullets.

Out of Pittsburgh's (PA) Schenley High School, he had scholarship offers from the University of Kentucky and West Virginia before choosing Maryland. In his first year as the Terp quarterback, he played for the legendary Clark Shaughnessy. Playing for the late Jim Tatum his junior year, he led the Terps to a 9-1 record including a 20-7 win over Missouri in the Gator Bowl in which he threw for two touchdowns.

Following graduation from the University's Medical School, he interned in Philadelphia and Cleveland, served two years in the Air Force then began his medical practice at Washington Hospital Center. He now works out of the Center and Sibley Hospital.

The 1985 OUTLOOK

"As a team we are, talent wise, a little better," says Bobby Ross. "We accomplished what we wanted to accomplish in the spring. We are ahead philosophically in our offensive schemes. We put the offense in during the spring and will not have to experiment in the fall. "There is no great weakness," added Ross, "but we need another tight end and most perplexing is the backup quarterback situation. I was hoping one of the four would jump out and get my attention in the spring. None did. It is very important that we get off to a good start, especially with the schedule we have. We have to come out of the chute at full speed," says Ross.

BY POSITION

OFFENSE —

QUARTERBACK — "I have confidence in Stan Gelbaugh," says Ross. "He had an excellent spring. We will have to settle on the backup in the fall." Ken Vierra, Dan Henning and Drew Komlo. Vierra is the only one with game experience having started at Utah and playing in three games last fall.

FULLBACK — "We have one of the finest in the nation in Rick Badanjek," says Ross. Badanjek has played in all 36 games since he has been at Maryland, scored 37 touchdowns and five two point conversions. Junior Letterman Stephon Seriber and Freshman Keith Bullock are competing for the backup spot with Sophomore Richard Shure and Ferrum Junior College product Thom Brown also available.

RUNNINGBACK — "The runningbacks had a good spring," says Ross. Tommy Neal and Alvin Blount shared the duties there last fall with Blount carrying 128 times and catching 20 passes and Neal 112 carries and 12 receptions. Freshman Carl Morton missed part of spring practice but will be available this fall.

WIDE RECEIVERS — "We moved Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof to the wide side to take advantage of his speed," says Ross. With Eric Holder starting at the split end spot we have two solid starters. We need consistency from the people behind them." Those competing for playing time include Lettermen Sean Sullivan, behind Holder, and James Milling and Larry Miles behind Abdur-Ra'oof. John Bonato caught a half dozen passes last fall before suffering an injury and Freshman Vernon Joines is also available.

TIGHT END — "Ferrell Edmunds and Chris Knight both had a fine spring" says Ross "but we need a third tight end in our offensive system." Edmunds took over the starting role in the fourth game last fall as he moved ahead of a pair of seniors. His physical ability and mental outlook could make him the finest to play at Maryland and the Terps currently have three tight ends in the NFL. There are three competing for the third spot in Freshman Dolph Tokarezyk, Sophomore Mike Echols and Freshman Blaine Rose.

CENTER — "We had good improvement at center in the spring," says Ross. "We moved Dave Amend, a letterman defensive tackle, there in the spring as he tested best for the position. He has made the move work out for us." Amend, John Perna and John Rugg are all candidates to start. Amend and Perna are sophomores and Rugg a freshman. "The development at center was very pleasing," says Ross. "We were concerned about replacing All-American Kevin Glover."

GUARD — "We have as fine a pair of guards as there is in the league" says Ross. "Both Len Lynch and Jeff Holinka have the ability to go on and play more football after college." Lynch is an elected Co-Captain and Holinka was voted the "Tough Terp" award following spring practice. "We established some depth in the spring," Ross adds. "Carl Bond improved and Perna can play guard as well as center. This gives us as much flexibility as we have had." George Colton returns as a letterman from the 1983 team and Richard Nelson made a successful move from defensive guard to offense in the spring. Robert Sterling and John Keister are also guard candidates.

TACKLE — "Another position of strength," says Ross. "JD Maarleveld is an All-American candidate and returning starter along with Tony Edwards. Sophomore Bill Hughes gives us three tackles capable of starting." John Sorna is a letterman while Ben Jefferson and Ed Walsh are redshirt freshmen who continue to improve.

DEFENSE — "The defense has made the biggest improvement," says Ross. We are a little bit quicker and close on the ball better than in previous years. We have a little more speed on defense and are a better stunting team. The development at linebacker in the spring was very pleasing. We were really concerned about replacing Eric Wilson."

GUARD — "Could be a position of strength," says Ross. Bruce Mesner returns as an All-ACC selection. Neal Sampson returns as a starter and Tommy Parker has also started in the past. Bob Arnold and Robert Klein are lettermen. Joe Giuliano, a sophomore, did not letter but played as a freshman.

TACKLE — Ted Chapman and Duane Dunham return as starters from the Sun Bowl team and Scott Tye is a two year letterman. "We were hurt as far as depth is concerned when we moved Amend to center," says Ross. "Scott Tye and Ted Chapman are two good tackles. Duane Dunham and Wayne Brunson must add weight and strength." Chapman and Tye were cited by Ross as "very much improved in the spring." This enabled Tye to win the starting job in the spring ahead of Dunham. Warren Powers is a redshirt freshman reserve.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS (defensive ends) — Co-Captain Scott Schankweiler, O'Brien Alston, Terry Burke and Sean Scott were all cited by Ross as making improvement in the spring. Kevin Donas and Steve Kelly missed the spring practice with injuries. Schankweiler, Donas and Kelly (right side) have earned five letters between them while on the left Scott, Alston and Burke all candidates to start have earned a total of four letters.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS — "A position of concern going into the spring but no longer a concern," says Ross. "There was general overall improvement." The emergence of Richard Petitbon and Kevin Walker was pleasing to the staff. Petitbon has joined Chuck Faucette as a starter. Walker was moved from fullback where he was the only freshman to letter last fall and had a fine spring. Letterman Jon Sabrowski returns from injury problems and two year letterman Bobby DePaul returns after missing the 1984 season. Matt D'Amico, Nick Marchetti, Letterman Pat D'Atri, James Wilson and Jim Morrison are reserves.

HALFBACKS — "We have a little more speed but have the tendency to give up the big play," says Ross. "Keeta Covington had a fine spring and Donald Brown improved in the spring." Keeta returns as starter while Brown regains the spot he opened the 1984 season in but lost to Bob Gunderman. Letterman Lewis Askew and Sophomore Troy Reynolds back up Keeta with Freshman Chad Sydnor and Wendall McKay along with Letterman Vernon Carter from the 1983 team reserves behind Brown.

SAFETY — Al Covington returns as an All-ACC selection and Football News First team All-American pre-season selection. Sophomore Letterman Danny Swingle, Senior Letterman Joe Bailey and Freshman Leon Bray moved from wide receiver are the reserve safeties.

KICKING GAME — Darryl Wright returns as the punter with Stan Gelbaugh the backup. Gelbaugh punted in 1984 until he moved into the starting quarterback spot. Ramon Paredes is the placekicker. "Wright punted very well in the spring. Hope he will be more consistent this fall. He was hitting the ball much better this spring" says Ross. "Paredes has a good leg. He has a lot of confidence." Keeta Covington will again return punts but we are looking for someone else to return kickoffs and give Keeta a little rest." Keeta Covington led the ACC in punt returns in 1984.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL RULES — "We still need to get more kickoffs in the game," says Ross. "The new blocking rule is a safer rule for the players. I don't see it as a problem leading to holding. It will teach players to stay off the ground more and should lead to fewer injuries."

1984 IN REVIEW

BOBBY ROSS and the Maryland Terrapins won their second consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference Championship with the most exciting offense ever seen in College Park. The Terrapins won their last seven games of the season and nine of the last 10 after an 0-2 start.

Over the seven game winning streak Maryland averaged 40 points and 499 yards a game total offense. Over the last 10 games the Terrapins averaged 478 yards a game and 36 points.

The 4,910 yards total offense for the regular season topped the record established by Boomer Esiason and company in 1983 and the 352 points fell one point shy of the school record for a season.

Maryland was the only team in the nation to play the last three national champions and came away with two wins and a one point loss in the three games. The Terps dropped a 25-24 decision to Penn State (1982), topped Miami 42-40 (1983) and then beat Clemson the 1981 champion 41-23 in Baltimore. None of the three games were played in Byrd Stadium.

The Terps recorded the greatest comeback in NCAA Division 1A football history, coming from a 31-0 halftime deficit to score 42 in the second half and top Miami 42-40.

In addition to the NCAA record the Terps recorded four ACC career records by Placekicker Jess Atkinson and made 30 changes in the Maryland record books. The Terrapin offense accounted for nine career records and 14 season marks in addition to the single game achievements.

SYRACUSE (Sept 8, Byrd Stadium) A young Maryland team committed six turnovers and dropped a number of passes as Syracuse won a 23-7 decision before 38,850. Frank Reich hit Greg Hill with a 14 yard touchdown pass on Maryland's first possession of the game. On the next possession of the game Reich hit Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof with a 67 yard pass but the touchdown was nullified by a holding penalty. The Terps did not drive across midfield again until their final possession of the game when they drove to the Syracuse 18.

After a 7-7 halftime tie the Terps fumbled the football to Syracuse on the 32 and 34 but held the Orangemen to a field goal and 10-7 third quarter lead. In the fourth quarter Maryland fumbled on the 11, resulting in a 34 yard field goal and on the nine with Syracuse scoring a touchdown. Co-Captain Eric Wilson had 20 tackles in the game and was named the ACC defensive back of the week.

Jess Atkinson kicked field goals of 34 and 42 yards and a 51 yard pass by Frank Reich to Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof set up a 17 yard touchdown toss to Alvin Blount. Rick Badanjek ran for a two point conversion.

Maryland drove to the 32 and 27 in the third quarterr but missed field goals into a strong wind. The Terps rushed for only 62 yards while Reich passed for 281.

After the Mountaineers went ahead 14-10 in the third quarter Maryland went up 17-14 in the fourth on a Rick Badanjek one yard run. West Virginia then tied it up 17-17 but the Terps held the ball for 5:25 driving from their 13 to the West Virginia three setting up the winning field goal. Maryland then led 22-21 but Tennessee returned the kickoff 100 yards to take a 27-22 lead still in the third quarter. Badanjek recorded the final score of the game with 2:28 remaining and a 28-27 Terrapin lead. Tennessee then drove from the 18 to the Maryland 44 with 1:20 remaining. Tony Robinson ran a quarterback draw on first down, picked up 15 yards but Keeta Covington knocked the ball loose when he made the tackle and his brother Al recovered the fumble for the Terps on the Maryland 30. Tommy Neal picked up 14 yards on two carries and the Terps had their ninth win of the season and the Sun Bowl Championship.

Eric Wilson set a Maryland record with his 483 career tackles. Wilson led the 1984 defense with 160, after a team leading 180 as a junior. For his four year career the Terp Co-Captain recorded 281 first hits, 202 assists, had 20 tackles for minus 75 yards and seven quarterback sacks. He also had nine tackles for no gain and intercepted four passes that he returned 77 yards. He has also handled deep snaps in the kicking game.

Ten different Terrapins contributed to the 12 pass interceptions by the Maryland defense in 1984. Eric Wilson and Chuck Faucette each had a pair as the linebackers picked off six and Tackle Ted Chapman added one for the linemen.

TERPS gave up only 38 points in the third quarter in 1984 and only three touchdowns in the third quarter. Virginia, Clemson and West Virginia recorded the only third quarter touchdowns. North Carolina was the only team to score twice in the third quarter as the Tar Heels kicked a pair of field goals.

MARYLAND
TERPS

University of Maryland

The University of Maryland, located in College Park, Maryland, was founded in 1807 as the College of Medicine of Maryland. The name was changed in 1812 to the University of Maryland and in 1920 it was merged with the Maryland State College. The current enrollment of students on the College Park campus totals 38,307. The University is located just north of our nation's capital, Washington, D.C. Visitors to the University of Maryland will be sure to find (clockwise from upper left) the Maryland Chapel, Main Administrative Building, Hornbake Library and the Glenn L. Martin Institute of Technology (the engineering building).

Dr. John S. Toll

President

As president of a major research University with five campuses and 87,800 students worldwide, John S. Toll devotes considerable energy to strengthening excellence in teaching, research, and public service. He is committed to the University's effort to develop programs of high quality, to retain and attract outstanding faculty and students, and to extend the University's expertise throughout society. As a highly respected leader in higher education, he has created new partnerships with industry, government, schools, and other institutions in this region.

In the past two years, milestones in the University's progress have included two Pulitzer Prizes for faculty members and important developments in medical research and treatment, in biotechnology, and in many other areas, among them:

- The National Science Foundation awarded the College Park campus a $16-million grant to establish a Systems Research Center, one of six national centers of excellence in engineering.
- The University of Maryland Foundation's high-tech research park has been selected as the site for the nationl Supercomputing Research Center.
- Three private gifts of $1.5-million each gave great impetus to the University's thrust to increase the level of private support. More than 25,000 alumni, parents, and friends also made gifts to the University during 1983-84, for a record level of private philanthropic support of $10.4 million. "Our future will be built on the twin pillars of private and public support," says Dr. Toll.

- The arts flourish at Maryland, including the highly acclaimed Handel Festival; the travelling exhibit on "350 Years of Maryland Art and Architecture"; the gala 15th anniversary of the Maryland International Piano Festival and Competition; and numerous other cultural events.

John Toll graduated from Yale with highest honors and earned his advanced degrees in physics at Princeton. During his distinguished career as a theoretical physicist and educator, for 12 years he chaired the physics department at the College Park campus and led it to national prominence. He then served as president of the State University of New York at Stony Brook from 1965 to 1978, when he returned to Maryland to become the University's 22nd president. An avid jogger and tennis player, Dr. Toll and his wife Deborah have two daughters.

John Brooks Slaughter, the third Chancellor of the College Park Campus, is a distinguished scientist and a dedicated humanitarian as well as an able administrator. His research specialities are in the fields of electrical engineering and computer systems. His accomplishments in these fields have brought him high recognition. He is a Fellow in the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He holds membership in the National Academy of Engineering, was selected U.C.L.A. Engineering Alumnus of the Year (1978), received the Distinguished Service Award from the National Science Foundation (1979), and was recognized for Distinguished Service in Engineering by Kansas State University (1981).

Dr. John Brooks Slaughter

Chancellor

Since his undergraduate days Dr. Slaughter has been active in humanitarian affairs. As chapter president of Zeta Sigma Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., (San Diego) from 1957 to 1959 he participated in cultural, social, and educational activities directed toward the enhancement of the black community in San Diego. As president of the Board of Directors of the San Diego Urban League he was concerned with providing equal opportunities in education, employment, housing, and social services.

Prior to assuming his responsibilities at the University of Maryland he served as Academic Vice President and Provost at Washington State University and as Director of the National Science Foundation. In his inauguration address to the College Park campus on May 3, 1983, he set the course for his administration: "I want to see this campus continue its vigorous pursuit of academic excellence while reaching out to a more diversified student body. I want the University of Maryland at College Park to set a national standard for excellence and equality. As we pursue these goals, we must also enhance our contributions to the State. Finally, I am committed to a university that is a community, a community that takes pride in itself and touches each person involved in the campus with pride."

Dr. Betty F. Smith
Chairperson, Athletic Council
Faculty Representative For Athletic Department

Dr. Smith was appointed to the all important position as Chairperson of the Athletic Council by Chancellor John B. Slaughter, June 1, 1985. She succeeds Dr. Charles A. Taff who chaired this important University and Atlantic Coast Conference athletic supervision responsibility since 1978. With her appointment, Dr. Smith has the distinction and privilege as the first female educator to be named to the position in the Conference.

Dr. Smith came to the University in August, 1970, as Professor and Chairman of the Department of Textiles and Consumer Economics. She continues to serve in this capacity. Prior to joining the faculty at Maryland, she was a member of the faculty at Cornell University.

A native of Arkansas, she received her B.S. degree at the University of Arkansas, 1951; an M.S. degree from the University of Tennessee, 1957; a Ph.D. degree in Textiles from the University of Minnesota; and another Ph.D. degree in Biochemistry, also from Minnesota in 1965.

In 1971, Dr. Smith was elected a Fellow of the Textile Institute. She teaches and conducts research in textile chemistry. She belongs to numerous professional societies, including the American Chemical Society, Sigma Xi, the Fiber Society, and the American Economics Association.

Dr. Smith has approximately 70 publications and papers from her research in textiles. She is co-author of a book, Introduction to Textiles, (Smith and I. Block) which was published by Prentice-Hall in Spring, 1982. In 1984, Dr. Smith was named a distinguished Alumna of Southern University.

Since coming to the University, Dr. Smith has served on numerous Department, College, and University committees.

While having some time to relax from her heavy academic assignments, Dr. Smith is an avid golfer.

Francis A. Gray, Jr. (Maryland '43)
Associate Athletic Director

Frank Gray joined the athletic department as Administrative Director in 1972. He is primarily responsible for the fiscal program of the department with an operating budget of approximately $6,000,000.

A native of Maryland and 1943 graduate of the University with a degree in Agriculture Economics and Farm Management, he began his professional career with the University as an Assistant County Agricultural Agent.

He entered private industry in 1955 but returned to the University in 1960 as Associate Dean of Student Life. During his 12 years prior to joining the Athletic Department he served two years as Acting Dean for Student Life and has served as Administrative Director for the Executive Dean for Student Life, the Vice President for Student Affairs and the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs.

Randy Hoffman (Maryland '74)

The funds provided by the foundation have enabled the Terrapins to develop a Women's program that has also gained national recognition. All funds go to scholarships and the scholarship program for Women athletes is on a par with the program for men's non-revenue sports.

MARYLAND'S WINNING STREAK: Seven wins ranks third among Division 1A schools. BYU tops the list with 24 while Florida has won nine in a row.

THE ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE: Had two or more Bowl teams for the thirteenth consecutive year as the 1984 Maryland Terrapins represented the league in the Sun Bowl and Virginia in the Peach Bowl. Both won their bowl games in '84 with Maryland topping Tennessee and Virginia beating Purdue.

NIGHT GAME: The Maryland - West Virginia game on September 21 will be telecast by TBS of Atlanta with lighting provided by Musco Mobile Lighting of Oskaloosa, Iowa. It will be only the second night game in the history of Byrd Stadium although late afternoon televised games have been completed under the lights. The other night game was the Maryland - West Virginia game on September 17, 1983. West Virginia won 31-21. Byrd stadium opened in 1950 and the last night game prior to that was a 33-7 Terrapin win over Georgetown in the old 18,000 seat Byrd Stadium that was located on the east side of campus. That game was Sept. 30, 1949.

TOP RANKED: Sport Magazine featured Maryland on the cover of its September issue while selecting the Terps number one in the nation. It was the first pre-season number one selection for a Maryland football team. ABC picked the Terps second in their pre-season ranking while other publications and organizations agreed Maryland was a contender with top five or ten rankings.

INAUGURAL BOWL GAMES: When the Terps met Tennessee in the Florida Citrus Bowl it was the third Inaugural Bowl game for Maryland. The Terps met Minnesota in the initial Hall of Fame Bowl game in 1977 winning 17-7. The Terps dropped a 20-21 decision to Washington in the inaugural Aloha Bowl game on a touchdown pass with six seconds left in the game. Maryland had played in the Tangerine Bowl in the past before it became the Florida Citrus Bowl in 1983.

HOMECOMING GAMES: Maryland will host North Carolina in the Homecoming game on November 2. The Terps have not lost a Homecoming game since Miami (Ohio) upset Roy Lester's squad 34-21 in 1969. The 15 consecutive Homecoming wins include four over Duke, three over N.C. State, a 17-14 decision over North Carolina in 1979 and single appearances by South Carolina, Clemson, Syracuse, Virginia, Wake Forest, Villanova and V.M.I.
